Plant Portraits by Post: Post Go British Flora

Julia Trickey : Plant Portraits by Post: Post Go British Flora before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Plant Portraits by Post: Post Go British Flora:

Julia Trickey, whose botanical watercolours have won numerous awards including four RHS gold medals, has illustrated three sets of pictorial stamps featuring wild flowers of Great Britain for Royal Mail's Post Go series. The process involved in this project is chronicled in Plant Portraits by Post, where you can see initial drawings, the work in progress and read about the issues encountered and the painting techniques employed.
