I like looking at the book and finding movies I haven't seen.2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Not only for serious collectors, but also for anyone interested in paging through an exquisite photographic renditionBy Midwest Book ReviewIllustrated with full-color photography of astoundingly rare movie posters on practically every page, The World's Rarest Movie Posters lives up to its title as a vivid catalogue of rare and remarkable pop culture treasures. Each poster's entry features a flawless photographic representation of the poster, and detailed buying information - the number of that poster known to exist (and some of the posters are the only known ones of their kind left), the highest price that poster has been known to sell for on auction, and more. Aside from a brief introduction, The World's Rarest Movie Posters is wholly devoted to serving as a visual reference and price guide of these fragile mementos. An excellent choice not only for serious collectors, but also for anyone interested in paging through an exquisite photographic rendition of rare movie posters for a very modest price.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful.

A must have for any movie poster enthusiast!By Aaron RaymondThis is a beautifully printed and exquisitely photographed must have book for anyone interested in classic movie posters. The author provides an insightful primer about movie posters and gives lots of auction results for the rarest of posters. It's a useful reference that I enjoy owning.

Over 283 color images of vintage movie posters include the extremely rare drive-in theater posters are featured along with the more common one-sheet size. These posters, often very different from the standard posters, were printed in smaller numbers, adding to their interest and value. Auction results from 1989-the present, and other pricing information make this a useful tool for collectors of posters who are trying to make informed purchasing decisions.

About the AuthorA perfect book for lovers of movies and movie posters. Here are images of some of the rarest movie posters in the world. With over 283 color images of vintage movie posters, the extremely rare drive-in theater posters are featured along with the more common one-sheet size. These posters, often very different from the standard posters, were printed in smaller numbers, adding to their interest and value. All of these posters have less than ten known copies in existence, and many have only one or two known examples. Posters of such favorite movies as ""Alien,"" ""Caddy Shack,"" and the ""Attack of the 50-Foot Woman"" are included, with iconic movie stars Marilyn Monroe, Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire. Auction results from 1989-the present, and other pricing information make this a useful tool for collectors of posters who are trying to make informed purchasing decisions.
