

8854408115296 pages | File size: 24.Mb

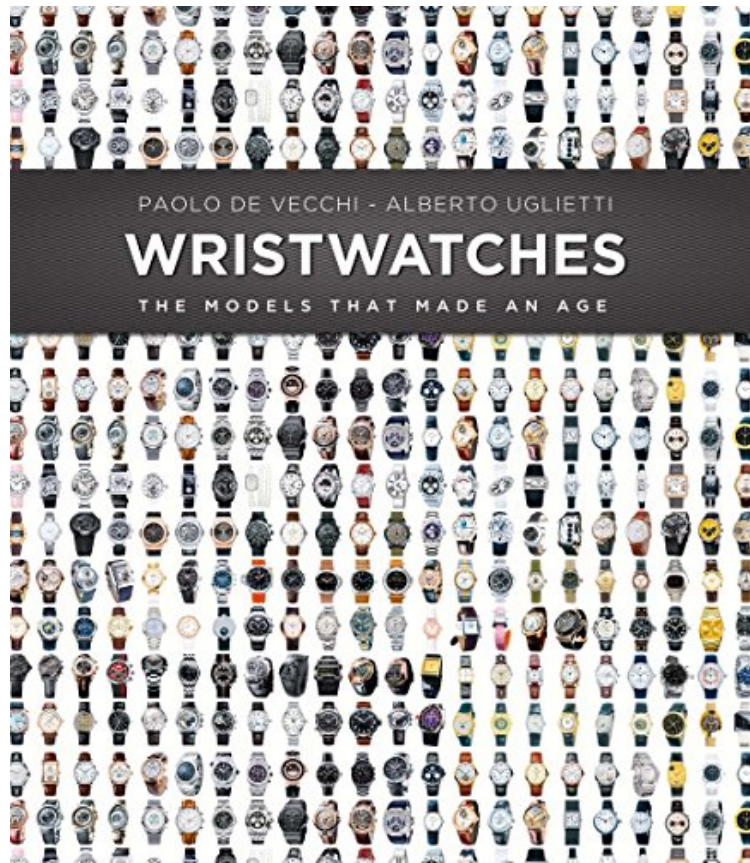

DOWNLOAD

Read more

Paolo De Vecchi, Alberto Uglietti
*DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

[Free and download] Wristwatches: The Models That Made an Age

Wristwatches: The Models That Made an Age

Paolo De Vecchi, Alberto Uglietti : Wristwatches: The Models That Made an Age before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Wristwatches: The Models That Made an Age:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wrist WatchesBy Bob in N.H.Very in-depth and thorough on all aspects of watch collecting. A wealth of information.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good bookBy appraiszerCould have been a little more detailed.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Pretty but superficial. No Seiko?By Tom AlaertsI browsed this in a local bookshop and formed a strong enough impression to post my opinion here.It is a very typical coffeetable book, with many nice pictures of models throughout the history of the featured brands; and like most coffeetable books it is light on details. Some high level info is all.I was surprised that Seiko was not in the book, while the brand was truly innovative (first quartz watch, etc), and beat the Swiss at the accuracy game with ther Grand Seiko models. This is in my opinion a true oversight, and rather typical of a coffeetable volume that mainly focuses on perceived luxury (though Swatch is also present). Of course they cannot include chapters on all brands, but skipping Seiko?The book might be an okay gift for a watch collector, to browse and enjoy the pictures.

From the first models made in the 1900s to the luxury brands created by Cartier and Patek Philippe, the wristwatch has become an object of passion among collectors. Through 55 of the most celebrated manufacturers, and more than 800 photos, this spectacular volume looks at the evolution of the watchits advances in design and technology, use in everyday life, and social impact. The featured styles include the Calatrava for Patek Philippe, Royal Oak for Audemars Piguet, Santos and Tank for Cartier, Submarines for Rolex, and the colorful Swatch, where plastic and the most innovative materials combine with precious gold and diamonds.

About the Author