Wyoming County (PA) (Postcard History Series)

Sean Billings, Johanna S. Billings : Wyoming County (PA) (Postcard History Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Wyoming County (PA) (Postcard History Series):

Wyoming County features postcards highlighting the history of communities nestled in the Endless Mountains. These unique images explore important industries such as the Noxen Tannery and the Lehigh Valley and Delaware, Lackawanna Western Railroads. Numerous photographs depict the county seat, Tunkhannock, as well as the surrounding towns, such as the former resort areas of Lake Carey and Lake Winola; Vernon and Vose, which have almost completely disappeared; and Laceyville, which appears almost untouched by time. From an early hospital in Meshoppen to scenes near Falls, Mill City, and Mehoopany, Wyoming County is sure to delight both residents and visitors.

About the Author Sean and Johanna S. Billings led the team that produced Lehigh Township. Sean, who grew up in Wyoming County, is president of the Lehigh Township Historical Society, a trustee of the Walnutport Canal Association, and a member of numerous other historical organizations in Pennsylvania. Johanna, a former resident of Tunkhannock, is an award-winning writer and photographer. She is a former reporter for the New-Age Examiner and currently serves as editor of two community weeklies near Allentown.
