Essential for Arizona Denizens!By Loyd EskildsonEvery tourist coming to Arizona knows about the Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam, Lake Powell, the Petrified Forest, etc. What Sam Lowe offers is a compendium of the lesser-known attractions - giant dinosaurs, frogs, "Mystery Castle," the Kingman Power Plant, Seligman, "Geronimo" (world's largest petrified tree), Peridot, Bisbee's Lavender Pit Mine, Chloride's rock murals, London Bridge, Nowhere, Hi Jolly, etc.I've lived in Arizona for 37 years and seen most of what's in "You Know You're In Arizona" and it's worth the time; to make certain I don't miss anything, however, I consult Sam's book prior to leaving the Phoenix area.

An entertaining collection of 101 quintessential places, people, events, customs, lingo, and eats that help define the personality of this proud state.

From the Back CoverYou know you're in Arizona when . . . . . your Christmas tree is a weed. . . you wear a dead scorpion around your neck. . . daylight saving time is for sissiesArizona has its own view of the world. Look through that lens and learn 101 quintessential people, places, events, eats, and traditions that help form the personality of the Grand Canyon State. You'll find out how to decorate tumbleweeds, what to do when your bolo tie gets too tight, and why clocks refuse to leap forward (or fall back). Whether you're a first-time visitor or a born-and-bred native, this book will make you smile as you discover what it really means to be in Arizona.
