Your Notebook! Pink Parasol

Mary Hirose : Your Notebook! Pink Parasol before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Your Notebook! Pink Parasol:

A couple shares a quite moment, shielded from the rest of the world by her pink parasol... Write about your own quiet moments when you are a little shielded, perhaps a little protected and offered stability as you decide when to go out into the world. This could be used as a cute couples journal/planner too. Write love letters, notes, adorations, times for dates, etc. Have fun, sweetheart.
