Zenith

Tony Dierckins : Zenith before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Zenith:

Featuring 475 vintage lithographic postcards and 20 historic paintings and etchings, Zenith is the only full-color history of the western Lake Superior region available anywhere, covering Duluth, Superior, Minnesota's Iron Range and Arrowhead, the Minnesota North Shore, the Wisconsin South Shore and Apostle Islands, and Michigan's Isle Royale. Complete with a narrative history of the region plus brief histories of each postcard topic, Zenith does what a good postcard should: provides readers with a unique perspective of what life was like in a certain place and time.

About the AuthorTony Dierckins has written or co-written more than two dozen books, including Crossing the Canal: An Illustrated History of Duluth's Aerial Bridge and Lost Duluth: Landmarks, Industries, Buildings, Homes, and the Neighborhoods in which They Stood both finalists for the Minnesota Book Award as well as Historic Glensheen 1905-1930. Dierckins is the 2012 recipient of the Duluth Depot Foundation's Historic Preservation and Interpretation Award and the publisher of Zenith City Press and Zenith City Online
